New This Week

Friday Evening Movie: Friday, January 10, 7:00 p.m. in the 6th Fl. Theater.
“Maid in Manhattan”- Sparks fly when a housekeeper and a rising politician literally collide at a posh New York City hotel. The only problem? He assumes she’s a guest. 1hr, 45min. 2002.

Saturday Movie: Saturday, January 11, 1:00 p.m. in the 6th Floor Theater-
“Hachi-A Dog’s Tale”- Young Ronnie reveals to his classmates that his personal hero is a dog named Hachi. Ribbed by his fellow pupils, Ronnie goes on to tell the remarkable story of his grandfather's friendship with the dog. 1hr. 33min. 2009.

Sunday Movie: Sunday, January 12, 1:00 p.m. In the 6th Floor Theater-
“It Started In Naples”- When American lawyer Michael Hamilton (Clark Gable) hears that his estranged younger brother and sister-in-law have died in a car accident, he flies to Naples, Italy, to settle their estate. Upon arriving, the xenophobic Hamilton meets his impish nephew, Nando (Marietto), for the first time, and decides he will bring the boy back with him to the United States. But when Nando's gorgeous aunt, Lucia Curcio (Sophia Loren), protests, a lengthy and heated custody battle ensues. 1hr. 40min. 1960.

Daniel Belavsky-Pianist: Sunday, January 12, 2:30 p.m. in the Astor Room.
We are thrilled to welcome back the incredibly talented Daniel Belavsky. Known for his captivating musicality and dynamic stage presence, Daniel brings you deeper into his performance with interesting background regarding the composer and music he has chosen, followed by a powerful expression of that music, intimately connecting with his audience. Join us for an incredible and energizing performance!

Montessori Monday: Monday, January 13, 10:00 a.m. in the 3rd Floor Art Studio. Come and make an art project with the 8th graders from Maryland Avenue Montessori School!

Resident Meeting: Monday, January 13, 2:30 p.m. in the Astor Room.
Join us for the latest campus updates and information. Bill Scobey-Polacheck, Pastoral Care Director from the Health Center, will be here to discuss the new “Walk Me Home” ministry.

Monday Evening Movie: Monday, January 13, 7:00 p.m. in the 6th Floor Theater. "Virunga" - The Oscar-nominated true story of the rangers risking their lives to save Africa's most precious national park and its endangered gorillas. 1hr. 40min. 2014.

Pause: Tuesday, January 14, 1:00 p.m. in the St. Anne Chapel. Take a moment out of your day to "Pause" and intentionally set aside time to pray, meditate, or practice mindfulness.

Aging Well Series-Spirituality: Tuesday, January 14, 2:00 p.m. in the Astor Room. Spirituality can be a profound source of strength, comfort, and guidance as individuals navigate the complexities of aging. Join our Pastoral Care team to explore ways we can cultivate purpose, meaning, and connection to something bigger than ourselves.

Book Buddies: Wednesday, January 15, 9:40 a.m. in the Solarium. Those who have signed up to be a book buddy, please meet your student in the Solarium.

Art Exploration: Wednesday, January 15, 10:00 a.m. in the 3rd Floor Art Studio. Engage your creativity with art projects designed for all abilities. Together we will play with a variety of media, from paints to yarn to clay. The group is led by Becky Prusko and all materials are provided. No experience necessary and everyone is welcome — Come check it out! This is also a reminder that the Art Studio is always open to your whims of creativity and interest in experimenting with the many materials that are provided.

Learn, Explore, Grow!: Wednesday, January 15, 2:00 p.m. in the Center for A Life Engaged. In the month of January, people around the nation celebrate "Inspire your Heart with Art" Day and we want to join in! We will watch a short video on how important creativity and art is in our lives and then turn it over to you to share a piece of art that you love or has inspired you in some way. Please bring along a piece of art you love, you have created and why it inspires you! If you have a favorite piece of artwork in mind and need a printed copy to show and share since we don't all own original Van Goghs, please see Megan.

Milwaukee Art Museum and Lunch!: Friday, January 17, 10:00 a.m. Meet in the Lobby. Whether you're an art connoisseur or simply looking for a fun day out, this is a perfect opportunity to immerse yourself in creativity and culture. The Milwaukee Art Museum, with its stunning architecture and impressive collection, offers an inspiring experience for art lovers and curious minds alike. Three special exhibits will be featured. Enjoy lunch at the café or continue browsing this beautiful and captivating space. Admission is free for members or $20 for seniors. Lunch is self-pay. The menu is at the Front Desk where you can sign up if you will be joining us, and we hope you will!

Other News

Volunteer Corner:

The Health Care Center needs help transporting residents to and from their salon appointments on Wednesdays. If you can push a wheelchair, your help would mean a lot! Please contact me if you're interested or have any questions. 414-224-9700 ext. 3720 hnebert@trinityseniorservices.org (or visit me in my office on the lower level where finance used to be). Thanks!

What's Happening in the Neighborhood this Weekend:

Have you ever been to Crossroads Collective at 2238 N Farwell? It's a "food hall" which allows a number of small business restaurants to operate in a collective space (similar to a food court in a mall). Every Sunday in January they are hosting a pop-up series with a rotating lineup of local vendors and unique finds. This is a free event from 1-6pm. Stop by this Sunday, Jan 12 and pick up some specialty baked goods from Versie's Bakery!

Writer's Club: The Writer's Club has started up again. This week's publication is "My Stepmother, Part 2" by Carol Wiensch. You can find all of the club's publications in a binder in the Marquette Lounge and the Library.

Golf Anyone? It may seem odd to think about golf as the snow is falling, but this is a time when leagues are organizing for the upcoming Season. There is opportunity at Lincoln Park to join a Senior Men's League on Monday mornings. Please see Dick Dybul if you are interested or would like more information.
