

Writer's Club: There is no Writer's Club publication this week. You can find all of the club's publications in a binder in the Marquette Lounge and the 4th Fl. Library. If you are interested in joining the writer's club please contact resident, Bill McNeill.

Find the Small White Angel! "A small white angel with wings, and out in the open she sings. Find her you must, while eating that bread or pie crust, oh what fun this search will bring!" There is a small white angel in plain sight somewhere in the Residence. See if you can find her! If you do, let Mitzi know. Good luck!

New This Week

Friday Evening Movie: Friday, April 11, 7:00 p.m. in the 6th Floor Theater- "The Shack"- When a grief-stricken father receives a mysterious note urging him to visit a shack in the woods, he sets out to find answers in this faith-based drama. 2hrs. 12min. 2017.

Saturday Movie: Saturday, April 12, 1:00 p.m. in the 6th Fl. Theater. "The Founder"- After a fateful encounter with the McDonald brothers, struggling sales rep Ray Kroc becomes driven to change the way hamburgers are made and sold. 1hr. 55min. 2016

Sunday Movie: Sunday, April 13, 1:00 p.m. In the 6th Floor Theater- "State of the Union"- Aircraft tycoon Grant Matthews (Spencer Tracy) is goaded into running for president by his politically ambitious longtime girlfriend, newspaper publisher Kay Thorndyke (Angela Lansbury). At the suggestion of unscrupulous campaign manager Spike McManus (Van Johnson), Matthews reunites with his long estranged wife, Mary (Katharine Hepburn), for the sake of appearances. But when the idealistic Mary learns of Kay's behind-the-scenes role, it throws the campaign into turmoil. 2hrs, 4min. 1948.

Choir Practice: Monday, April 14, 1:00 p.m. in the Astor Room. Weekly practice for the spring concert in June.

Resident Forum: Monday, April 14, 2:30 p.m. in the Astor Room. The Resident Forum is a bi-monthly meeting to provide the opportunity for resident questions, feedback, input and suggestions regarding our experience here at Milwaukee Catholic Home. We invite representatives from the different departments to attend as well. Residents are encouraged to come prepared with questions or topics they would like to discuss as well as ideas for future programming.

Monday Evening Movie: Monday, April 14, 7:00 p.m. in the 6th Floor Theater. "Fire Mountain: The Eruption & Rebirth of Mt. St. Helens"- Two hundred and thirty square miles leveled in moments. Captured in rare and spectacular aerial photography with words and pictures of the survivors, witness the terrifying fury of the worst volcanic disaster in American history - Mount St. Helens. Then, behold the miraculous natural recover of the land and the awesome beauty of the volcano nearly two decades after its devastating eruption.

Pause: Tuesday, April 15, 1:00 p.m. in the St. Anne Chapel. Take a moment out of your day to “Pause” and intentionally set aside time to pray, meditate, or practice mindfulness.

Dr. Tim Crain: Winston Churchill: Tuesday, April 15, 7:00 p.m. in the Astor Room. During this 6-part series, Dr. Crain explores the remarkable life of Winston Churchill. From his early years in the British Army to his leadership during WWII, Churchill’s resilience, eloquence, and strategic mind helped shape the course of history. Part V: Prime Minister Winston Churchill: World War II began with the German invasion of Poland in 1939. Following the Fall of France in the spring of 1940, Britain stood alone against Nazi Germany, and Winston Churchill became Prime Minister on May 10, 1940. He proved to be a superb wartime leader and believed that all the challenges that he had experienced in his life, trained him for this one enormous task. Churchill led Britain to victory and its finest hour in the backdrop of the Second World War.

Book Buddies: Wednesday, April 16, 9:30 a.m. in the Solarium. Those who have signed up to be a book buddy, please meet your student in the Solarium.

Art Exploration: Wednesday, April 16, 10:00 a.m. in the 3rd Floor Art Studio. Engage your creativity with art projects designed for all abilities. Together we will play with a variety of media, from paints to yarn to clay. The group is led by Becky Prusko and all materials are provided. Becky has a new intern, Ellen, from Mt. Mary University for everyone to meet! No experience necessary and everyone is welcome – Come check it out! This is also a reminder that the Art Studio is always open to your whims of creativity and interest in experimenting with the many materials that are provided.

No Faith in Our Lives this Week

Garden Committee Meeting: Wednesday, April 16, 2:00 p.m. in the Astor Room. Join us as we continue the discussion around gardening and landscape ideas for our campus.

Taizé Prayer: Wednesday, April 16, 7:00 p.m. in the St. Anne Chapel
You are invited to experience the peaceful experience of prayer in the style of Taizé. Music, scripture, reflections and meditation are interwoven during this half hour on Wednesday evenings at 7:00pm in the St. Anne Chapel. All are welcome!

Healthy Chat: Brain Stretch: Thursday, April 17, 10:00 a.m. in the Center for A Life Engaged. Join St. Camillus nurse Mary Herker to talk about the reason for increased forgetfulness and learn some fun creative ways to improve memory.

Stations of the Cross: Friday, April 18, 3:00 p.m. in the St. Anne Chapel. Praying the stations of the cross began in the earliest days of the Church as pilgrims to Jerusalem retraced Jesus’ steps in his final journey to Calvary. This traditional Catholic form of prayer will be prayed each Friday during Lent.
