Fall Getaway
ON THE Door Peninsula

OCTOBER 20-22, 2026

The Door Peninsula

Experience the beauty of Wisconsin's beloved Door County during the peak of the fall season. From picturesque shoreline views and charming waterfront villages to scenic state parks and iconic lighthouses, this three-day getaway is filled with the best the Door Peninsula has to offer. Enjoy three days and two nights of lakefront accommodations at the Stone Harbor Resort in Sturgeon Bay. With beautiful waterfront views and comfortable accommodations, Stone Harbor Resort is the perfect home base for our Door County getaway. Enjoy guided sightseeing, unique local attractions, delicious regional dining, and plenty of time to browse quaint shops and markets. Along the way, you'll savor a traditional Door County fish boil, visit a local winery and coffee roastery, explore the area's rich maritime history, and take in the breathtaking autumn colors that make Door County one of Wisconsin's favorite destinations.

Highlights Include:

- Whitefish Dunes & Peninsula State Parks
- Lunch at the famous Al Johnson's
- Door Peninsula Winery tour & tasting + Door County Coffee
- Pizza party at Sonny's
- Door County Maritime Museum
- Shopping in Fish Creek
- Traditional Door County fish boil at the Old Post Office, Ephraim
- Lighthouse Trolley Tour with lunch included
- Stop at a local orchard and cheese factory
